Every year Devon Community Foundation makes hundreds of grants to small charities and voluntary groups across Devon, helping those in our local communities who are struggling with disability, deprivation and isolation.

Our Friends scheme is a simple way to support the Foundation and people in need across Devon. Signing up means you could help tackle homelessness, provide a lunch club for elderly people, help children with disabilities or fund a club for young carers – to name but a few.

We pool donations from Friends and Benefactors which means your subscription will carry on making a lasting difference in Devon for many years to come.

As a Friend of the Foundation you will:

- Receive invitations to Foundation events – giving you a chance to meet like minded people
- Get a chance to attend a 'Seeing is Believing' Tour, to visit groups you have helped to support
- Receive a copy of our bi-annual newsletter

All you need to do to become a Friend or Benefactor is complete the form opposite and send it to Devon Community Foundation.

Thank you for helping to change lives in Devon for the better

Young people with special needs is just one group you could help as a Friend or Benefactor of the Foundation
